Have just received word of delivery of the second packet of coins which I neglected to return from your shipment of Oct. 19th. I hope everything is included now - I shall be obliged if you will return the 6 or 7 coins I sent you in approval last June or so. You wrote offering me a small price which I prefer to not accept. I wrote sometime ago asking for their return, but the gentleman who answered stated that it would be attended to, on your return.

The present shipment is a very desirable one. Some coins I did not take, already having them, others I cannot afford at present. Should like to have some plates and double titles of Maximilian and Charles V. No 20 in your lot is desirable but price is high for the condition which is not quite up to a high mark.

Am leaving for a few weeks absence, after which say in 30 days should like to receive another lot made up of European coins (Russian, Danish, Swedish, German, in general Italian, ^{Papal} with some choice examples of Brunswick Lüne. & Saxony,) only very high condition.

Dear Sirs,

I am returning your shipment 23/11/04 and have taken Nos 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 10, 12, 17, 22, 30, 42, 46, 72, in part payment of which I send cheque for $100 —

In a number of instances I have taken your coin, and returned a previous purchase as I am desirous of improving ^{the state of} my collection, especially with regard to early purchases, and I enclose a lot of such that are not up to the mark, but which I do not care to lose too much upon. Many were bought from you but with the earlier purchases I was careless in keeping the cards & notes of cost. This about cleans out the undesirable specimens, and if you deal liberally with me, shall make it up with you —

In several instances I find I have finer specimens than those offered, and at considerably less cost. The dross XV in your last lot, at $22. I have in finer state at $15.⁰⁰ the Lybrius Fred. of this lot. I have Feb 20 I have finer at $18.⁰⁰ John Casimir Poland 1850 at $44 ^{finer} I have of Spain at $14 —

I am not well supplied with ^{mint} catalogues, but this detracts from my confidence in paying the price of expensive coins; the cheaper thalers are certainly cheaper bought direct from Germany; nevertheless I prefer to deal with you where this is justified, owing to the greater convenience —

N^o 51. Sigmund of Dietrichstein I would like, but the price seems very high, also 75 Ad. Ferd. of Mecklenburg, this last if you obtain in finer state

Messrs S. H. & Co. Chapman

Dear Sir,

I returned the medals a few days since retaining only N^o 31 $1⁵⁰ and 38 at $4 - in exchange ^{like} of former purchase at $2²⁵ as I am not at present interested in modern medals.

Yours 13th Dec. arrived yesterday with those of Max de Berghem etc.

I note that there is a discrepancy in some coins returned and cannot yet explain the matter clearly. On consulting my cabinet I find my Commonwealth crown was purchased ~~from you~~ bears your tag which says Commonwealth Crown 1653 Very fine ^{34x} $15 - With my early purchases I neglected to keep a record of date of purchase. I sometimes take out a coin and compare with a one on sent, and it is possible I may inadvertently have made an exchange but my piece here bears the date 1653 so it is clear I have not the 1654 piece you speak of -

As to the Geo 1 crown EF 17. My tray contains only one Geo 1 (1718) which bears the tag of Sprink and no date on card ^{or his invoice} - I bought a Geo 1 of you Inv. 4 no 18/1903 N^o 509 1718 for $20, so this particular coin may be the purchase from you - (My tag got somewhat shifted over in ^{shipping} moving the cabinet) I am under the impression that I sent you a Geo 1 crown among the lot offered for sale. Please return it if so. for inspection -

As to these coins offered for sale I am disappointed at price offered. Your bill makes a correction in debiting me with ^{date Nov. 11, 1904.} $71.
$20 - of which I had forgotten to check off, pray excuse error - and amounts to $173-70. Some of these purchases were by exchange of exchange for better pieces. I returned previous purchases with their tags amounting to $24-75, furthermore 19 crowns & 3 ^{1/2} crowns for sale.
Your allowance is $26-50 for the whole lot - This makes $175 for the 19 crowns. On these terms we cannot trade. I thought your Braum coin
no. 8 for $7 - which is triflingly better than the one I offer for sale which costs me I think $3⁵⁰ (price must be marked on a tag) If you cannot make this allowance I prefer to keep my own. I also sent back a Roman sester purchase from you - and I think a Brand. Anspach. I must ask you to allow me the full price for the coin marked with your tag, and a fair price for the balance if you wish to take them. This seems to me to be only fair reciprocity. Awaiting your early answer, I will not divide upon the little shipment by mail yesterday.

I preferred not to take Madai with the margins cut back and in modern binding. and regret your trouble in sending the large box of medals. These however do not concern me at present though any Renaissance German or Italian specimens would -

The John Thus specimen, I have seen in different catalogues as a private medal. It is not I think a thlr, but a guilder, and I should like to know by whom struck - if for example by the city of Prague. The one I have is less well struck but is in this weight.

Pray look over the exchange list again. If you do not care to furnish the 19 crowns send them back, but I should expect you to take back the $24⁷⁵ of previous purchases.

I am yours truly
C A Baldwin.

When do you expect to receive a further consignment of European crowns? Have you any ^{19²⁵ cent} ~~19²⁵ cent~~ ^{asp. thrs} thrs or 5 MMs pieces in proof state? Desire recent Saxon thrs & MMs and recent reigns in proof.
